VOL. II. NO. 7.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1896.

PRICE, 10 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Forsyth book for the term April 15-21 is out. It's offerings are full of quality. They average $1,750 per day, the purses ranging from $250 to $300 and the handicaps from $400 to $600. The opening day's Inaugural handicap is of $600 at one mile, and the fourth event of each day is of such class.

There is likely to be a great sharpening in speed on the three Indiana tracks this year. The Lakeside mile record is O'Connell's 1:42½, a wonderful performance; that at Forsyth is Eagle Bird's 1:48½; and the Sheffield mile mark is Wolsey's 1:52.

Manager Charles J. Miers of the Lakeside folks, recently went to Valparaiso, Ind., and acting for all the tracks, made a contract with P. W. Clifford to put eight inches of elastic clay on each of the three. It is now going on Forsyth's surface. The soil is the same as that which sharpened Hawthorne's general speed some four seconds per mile.

There will be nearly 1000 horses—as many as the stables can be crowded to hold—in and around Hammond, Ind., when the Chicago season begins. Secretary Creveling began the sensible work of refining his material ten days ago. He only assigns stables to the best of applicants nowadays. He knows them, too. Creveling, by the way, is in his own place as secretary. There never was a better mixer, no man knows so many western horsemen as he, no one is more even of temper. Creveling, too, is as energetic as a steam engine, is able to hold his own in an argument and can buffet back when he is buffeted.

The rumors about Indiana legal action against Lakeside Forsyth, and Sheffield as race tracks to be operated contrary to the Seller's law are wild. The Seller's measure allows each race track in Indiana forty-five days racing yearly in three terms of fifteen days each thirty days apart. The most honest effort, and costly one, too, is being made to obey these terms. The rumors are mischievous of course. The mischief makers raise the untrue point of one party owning all three tracks, and thus evading the law. The ownership of each of the tracks suburban to Chicago are as distinct as that of the ownership of the Times-Herald and Tribune. There is not, either, the link of connection through an association to control prices. The same officials have been employed by all three tracks. That's healthy and honest, because the same racing material is to be dealt with on all the courses, and official acquaintance means official intelligence in administration. Instead of dodging the Sellers law, Messrs. Condon, Smith, O'Neil, Mayer and O'Leary, of Lakeside; Messrs. Burke and Brenock, of Forsyth; and Messrs. Hankins, Martin, and McHie, of Sheffield, are doing their best to live within it, and at the same time best serve their own and the public interest.

J. A. Brunell

New Orleans Jockeys Hurt.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 1.—There was a sad accident in the fifth race to-day. Little Alta with Gatewood up and Belle Groves under Corner collided and fell on the turn. It was a bad mess. Gatewood is in danger with concussion of the brain and three of Corner's ribs were broken.

LITTLE ROCK A LOSER.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 1.—It was officially announced to-day that there would be no racing on Friday. The meeting has been a failure so far and the stockholders are tired of going down into their pockets. Saturday and Monday will probably wind the game up. C. T. Patterson's filly Suison is a good one and to-day McGuigan raised his $1,500 offer to $2,000, but it was refused.

Maggie Gray should have won the last race but Schorr turned her head loose at the sixteenth pole and the filly swerved.

The finish in the fourth race was close, not a length separating the first five horses.

Lavage Goes to England.

George Lavage and his trainer, Sam Fitzpatrick, sailed on the City of Paris yesterday for England. Lavage goes to prepare for his fight with Burge, and though he goes out of his class, ought to win.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The good, game race horse Uncertainty, was purchased by John Brenneck recently. (Breeder and Sportsman.) Was he? When, too, did he get good and game? Send the recipe east. It's needed.

The McNaughton & Muir lot was the first to leave California and is at Latonia with Semper Lex, Derfargilla, Philomena, Basso, Judge Denny and three 2-year-olds. The party won $25,000 and two horses on the coast.

Eugene Leigh has bought a half interest in the D. McDaniels starting machine, being tried on the Ohio-Kentucky tracks. Five are being put up at the Newport course. George Oakes, of Covington, has patented a machine with a double barrier, and seeks to have it tried at Latonia. When the front barrier goes up one behind descends and urges any dilatory horses. This, the inventor claims, will make the term, "left at the post," obsolete.

Old Speculation, a sprinter of good class, six years old and by Spendthrift—Alcina, has joined the Eastern jumping brigade. At exercise, a few days ago with Ajax, he and his companion came near breaking their necks.

To such of its clients that want to invest on the Eastern handicaps, DAILY RACING FORM can recommend Higgins & Co., of Baltimore. There is no danger of any winning tickets issued by the firm not being paid.

The local firm of Clohesy & Co., which advertise in our columns, can be endorsed for ability to well and reasonably supply bookmakers with all the tools they use.

That speedy jade, Gold Dust, died a day or two ago of pneumonia in Phil Gilman's stable at Birmingham, Ala. She was five years old and by Isaac Murphy—Ada Glenn. Ed Corrigan bred her, sold her to Pat Dunne, who in turn sold her for the inconsistency within her, to Gilman. She was fast but untrue.

Barney Schreiber is good at a horse bargain. He bought Lucky Dog for $500 at the Reed sale, and sold him a few days later to Sam Hildreth for $1,000. The horse is not one of the Dutchman's kind. He is't an everyday or an honest one.

Trainer H. R. Baker, one of the cleanest cut figures on the turf, has arrived at St. Louis from San Francisco with the Schreiber horses. The pick of the stable will come here next week for racing on the Indiana tracks.

What William Easton Thinks of "Form."

Mr. William B. Easton, the king of thoroughbred salesmen, in a letter to DAILY RACING FORM, says: "I consider that the paper is the best edited and most readable one of its character which ever came under my observation."

WOODLANDS STUD

15 MILES FROM ST LOUIS ON THE WABASH
BARNEY SCHREIBER'S MODEL FARM.

THE CHOICEST OF AUSTRALIAN BLOOD.

FOUL SHOT BY MUSKET -SLANDER.

MUSKET is the sire of Carbine, Trenton, Nordenfeld, Currassier, Brigadier, Maxim, Martini-Henry, etc. Slander, was the winner of seventy-five races at all distances, carrying as high as 145 pounds, by Camden, out of Annie Laurie (a famous race mare and producer). Capapie, the sire of the latter, was the grandsire of Yattendon. Foulshot himself was a great race horse. He won the Northern Derby in New Zealand in the fastest time it has ever been run in, and the same afternoon won at two miles from twenty-six starters. He has been a phenomenal success as a sire. Last year he had nineteen representatives on the turf, twelve of which were winners, and all the others inside the money. Foul Shot will come east in May and take his place at Woodlands, after serving a few of the most select California mares, including Janet N, the dam of Crescendo, Bellicoso and Dolce.
